

Gov. Stone for Delegate-at-Large.

Gov. Stone will retire from the office of chief executive of Missouri with a determination not to again enter public office. Nevertheless he will not lose personal interest in politics and he will not be derelict in the duties of citizenship. He will continue to be a thorough Democrat and therefore a staunch friend of free silver. For this reason the Leader-Democrat with a great crowd of others in Missouri, hopes that he will be chosen a delegate-at-large from Missouri to the national convention. He is the man above all others in the State to be the spokesman for Missouri.—Springfield, (Mo.) Leader-Democrat.
